

Performance Expectations

The people I manage will live up to or down to my expectations.

If you are not satisfied with the performance of your staff, don't look at what you expect of them, BUT what THEY THINK you expect of them.